Early Morning Thoughts

It's often dark these days when I leave the house for my morning walk. Sometimes my memory flashes back to the many cold, dark mornings I spent on my paper route as a kid in Waterloo. And I wonder what in the world my parents were thinking, letting me walk around every morning, through seedy apartment buildings and along dark neighborhood streets delivering newspapers by myself.

But that was the 70's; it was a simpler time. Well... not really, but it was simpler to me. I didn't worry about things like child abductors and, apparently, neither did my parents. But poor, unfortunate Johnny Gosch changed all of that. You may remember the news story. In 1982, twelve-year-old Johnny Gosch disappeared while delivering papers on his morning route in Des Moines and was presumed to have been kidnapped. It opened all of our eyes to the fact that the world had become a more dangerous place for children. Though I was in high school by the time it happened and had long since quit my paper route, it was one of those "loss of innocence" moments for me. Johnny was the same age I was when I delivered papers, and even today as I take morning walks, I wonder why it was Johnny who disappeared and not me.

Walking around our Charles City neighborhood this time of year, I pass darkened house after darkened house. I notice all the unlit Christmas lights and the giant, inflatable decorations sitting in sad, nylon puddles on the ground and I think about how fragile Christmas spirit can be. It's easy to be joyful and filled with holiday cheer when the lights are on and the over-sized Santa or snow globe is swaying happily in the yard. But, with the flip of a switch or the tick of a timer, it all goes away and we lie on our beds in the dark worrying about things like kidnappers, robbers, money, deadlines, illness, and death.

But then ... we light candles on the Advent wreath. The world can be so very dark at times, but in this season of Advent we light candles to keep the darkness at bay and to remember that God has sent the Light of Christ to be with us in our dark times ... even when the Christmas decorations are turned off and put away. And because of that I can drag myself out of bed in the morning. I know that the Light is with me and will help me through whatever might happen today. So, I go and exercise. I fight off disease and death another day. When I've finished, I know that the darkness will be gone, the sun will be up, and the world will be filled with light once again.

Peace,
Pastor Russ

Sound & Video Capital Campaign Approved

On Sunday, November 18th, members of St. John gathered between services to listen to information about a proposed upgrade in the sound system, followed by a vote as to whether or not to approve a capital campaign to pursue the upgrade. Receiving a 94% approval, the congregation sent a message that the Council and Sound & Video Task Force should continue with this process. The total estimated cost of the project is $125,000 so financing this project is an important decision. St. John does have a portion of the Gertrude Kroneman estate dedicated towards supporting "programming" and the balance in the account could easily cover this upgrade. However, the Task Force and Council agree that instead of expending those dollars directly, they would prefer that direct donations be given, and pledges offered in order to finance it. We will still use the assets in the Kroneman account to initiate and complete the project, the cash donations and pledges will be "refunding" the dollars borrowed from the Kroneman account for future use. What a blessing we have this flexibility!

So where do we go from here? We now start the process of fundraising. The Council has decided that no contract with Lifeline Audio will be entered into until 100% of the project has been fundraised through either cash donations or pledges. Much discussion was held over the pledging process. The Council decided to allow a two-year pledge period for this project. This means that individuals or families have the immediate opportunity to indicate how much money they will donate towards this project and then pay over the next two years. We know there is support for the project, we just wanted to make it as easy as possible for families to budget. This means that whatever you write down on the pledge card, you will have two years to follow through with your commitment. We have a fantastic congregation and know that people will follow through. Life does happen, and we'll work things out should something change.

Once we reach 100% in direct cash donations or pledges received, we will then start the project. If we can reach $125,000 by early January 2019, it is possible that we may have the system in place by Easter. Installation is expected to take about a week and training for the following week. Members of the congregation should expect to be receiving a letter in the mail, along with a pledge card. You will also be seeing pledge cards in the pews and in the Narthex.

Please remember that this project is on top of our regular giving. Thank you and I'm looking forward to this exciting project! If you have any questions, please contact me!

Put Jesus On Your Christmas List This Year! *The Stewardship committee would like to encourage everyone to take the typical amount that you would spend on a Christmas gift and put it in an envelope and then place it in the special box that is in the narthex starting Sunday, November 25th. Envelopes can be found next to the special box. These gifts, which are above and beyond your regular giving, will go toward the general budget and be used to fulfill the many ministries of St. John! ### Prayer Shawl Ministry

Now is a good time to spend some time with your knitting, crocheting or quilting to make a prayer shawl for someone that needs special consideration by this congregation. Whether it is an illness, a death or some other life altering event, we can show we care with a warm shawl and a visit. We have some shawls ready to go but need more. We will start putting the shawls out on some Sundays, so they can easily be picked up and delivered to the people. They can be picked up anytime by coming to the office and Kathy will help you.

We ask that you check out the shawl, so we know who will be receiving it. There is also a book with patterns and information of shawl size and tips in the office, plus lots of yarn in the clothing room that can be used.

Volunteer Needed!

As a part of St. John's ministry to families who have lost a loved one, the Women's Ministry provides food and help for funeral lunches held at St. John. Arlene Thomas has been our monthly caller for the last year and has done a fine job but would like someone else to take over in 2019.

What we need is a Funeral Lunch Coordinator who would find a volunteer from each month's list of "helpers" to be the Caller for that month. The Caller goes through the list to ask for salads, cakes & workers when there is a funeral lunch. The Caller then gives the list of volunteers to the office so a check in sheet can be made. The check in sheet lets those who are here know who is providing food & help. If you are interested in being the Funeral Lunch Coordinator for 2019, please let the office know!

For the many blessings that come from Heaven above; we thank you, Lord, with heart and soul and sing of Your great love!

We are very blessed here at St. John Christian Preschool. We have 45 little ones who enter our preschool center with shining smiles and happy hearts each week. It's easy to love your job when you are surrounded by such enthusiasm!

During the month of November, we talked about letters Ff, Hh, and Ii. We also talked about how THANKFUL we are for all the blessings God bestows upon us each and every day! We celebrated the end of November with a Thanksgiving feast. Each little one brought enough 1-bite items to share with all of his or her friends in the class. Even though 24 raisins did not look like much on their own; when everyone combined their "little bits" we were surprised at the feast that we were able to create.

We presented our new afternoon friends (4/5-year old) with their very own Bibles on Friday, November 2nd. It is always such an EXCITING day! We then ask each of our friends to bring their Bibles back to preschool on Wednesday's so that we may "read" the Bible story together. What an awesome opportunity to expand our literary skills using GOD'S WORD!

As we prepare to move into the Christmas season, we invite you to stop by Otto's Oasis where the preschool will be displaying its Christmas tree for the 12th year in a row. This year's theme is "Star of Wonder!" Our families contributed hand-made ornaments celebrating the one TRUE king. All money placed in the container beneath our Christmas tree is a direct donation to our preschool program. We feel that this is not only a great family activity for our preschoolers and a wonderful way of sharing the Christian message of our preschool with the community, but also a great fundraiser for our program! NEW this year will be a "Scavenger Hunt" and "Festive Fridays!" Visitors can participate in a Scavenger Hunt with answers found among the trees. Weekly prize winners will be drawn on Festive Fridays leading up to Christmas. All entries will be eligible for a Chamber Cash drawing at the end of the event. The tree that gathers the most in monetary donations during the event will win the Outstanding Tree Award and an additional $50 for their organization! So, go out and see our completed tree and vote! 😊

We do not have the words to offer thanks to everyone who supports the preschool. In addition to our amazing preschool staff: Carleen Laue, our substitutes, Shirley Holm & Susan Shankland, Foster Grandma Evelyn Schmidt, and myself, we have a church staff who supports us on every level. Pastor Leeper makes frequent visits to our preschool to talk with, sing with, laugh with and read the Bible story with our little ones. John Swiggum and Julie Heddens keep our preschool so sparkling clean that even visitors comment on how amazing our preschool looks! Kathy Hoeft is quick to answer our phone when we are tied up with our little ones and Linda Hughes keeps track of all of our financial transactions. Our preschool is also greatly impacted by the six women who serve on our preschool advisory board. These moms take extra time out of already busy schedules to ensure that our preschool is all that it can be. Last, but most certainly not least, we remember the CONGREGATION who supports us financially and spiritually. All of these people working together provide an early childhood education for many of the youth of Charles City. At St. John Christian Preschool, we not only offer opportunities for our little ones to learn their colors and their letters, but we are also teaching them about God's great love! THANK YOU FOR HELPING US DO THIS AMAZING WORK!

Blessed Beyond Wonder, Whitney Franke
