Pastor Anita Nuetzman:

Pastor/Priest \ PA-stuhr/preest\ n.

A sinner who is so aware of the power of sin in his or her own life that he or she feels called by the Holy Spirit to announce that God loves sinners.

--- from Crazy Talk: A Not-So-Stuffy Dictionary of Theological Terms, Rolf A. Jacobson, Editor, Augsburg Books, 2008, p. 127.

When I meet someone for the first time, I try to avoid telling them what I do unless they ask directly. Because more often than not, their first reaction is to cover their mouth with one hand and gasp, “Oh my gosh! I hope I didn’t swear!!”

Relax. I didn’t spend four years of my life and tens of thousands of dollars on books and tuition just to police profanity. It really is the least of my concerns. In fact, I’ve been known to swear on occasion, too. Here’s another shocker for you: I enjoy craft beers.

If that shatters your image of what a pastor should be like, so be it.

Because there’s no one more surprised that I’m a pastor than I am. Ministry wasn’t part of my plans. I never expected to get past the first interview with the Assistant to the Bishop, much less accepted into seminary, pass Greek, or clear the many other hurdles one must in order to be ordained. That’s not a backdoor way of fishing for compliments, so please don’t try extra hard to reassure me; I just don’t think of myself as someone who deserves this rare privilege.

But that’s the thing; nobody is. Because pastors are sinners, just like everyone else.

Yep, every single one you’ve ever had in the last 149 years of St. John’s history. Sinners. All of ‘em. Sure, sometimes it’s more visible than others, but there’s not a one who wasn’t (or isn’t) a sinner. Some of us are just more up front about it and that makes folks uncomfortable sometimes because they want their pastor to be holier than they are, a shining example of Christian living.

That’s the expectation, and pastors may even perpetuate that myth, that they are somehow an improved version of humanity, but the reality is, we can’t really do any better job than any of you. We are still subject to the same kinds of temptations and weaknesses as every other human being.

My prayers are not better than yours. My faith isn’t stronger than yours. Many of you have committed more scripture to memory than I have. Reciting the Catechism was never a requirement for me.

So why the heck is someone like me serving a congregation? Only by the grace of God, who has called me to utilize the gifts I have for the sake of the good news of Jesus Christ, at this time, in this place, as affirmed by your votes on June 13. Believe me, it’s not as if I haven’t tried to say no, but as a wise pastor once told me, “God always wins.”

Think you’re exempt from being called because you’re not holy or smart or faithful enough? Think again. God calls everybody in some way, shape or form.

“...the Holy Spirit has called me through the gospel, enlightened me with his gifts, made me holy and kept me in the true faith, just as he calls, gathers, enlightens, and makes holy the whole Christian church on earth and keeps it with Jesus Christ...”

---- from Luther’s explanation to the Third Article of the Creed.

So, it’s not a matter of “if” God is calling you, but “how?” Your prior record is not a disqualifier, and neither are your faults. Whenever you hear it, you might just as well answer the same thing we pastors do in our ordination,

“I will, and I ask God to help me.”

Yours by the grace of God,

Pastor Anita

OF NOTE...

Following CDC guidance, masks are NO longer required for fully vaccinated people in the building.
However, those who are not fully vaccinated or at high risk from the COVID-19 virus are strongly encouraged to wear a mask.
Everyone is welcome!

In 2020 St. John had provided worship by video on our Website & YouTube. Attendance at in person worship has been rising and it has been decided that starting in June we will provide videos 2 times per month.

Videos will be provided on July 11, July 25, August 1 & August 15.

The radio broadcast will continue EVERY Sunday at 9:00 a.m.

Our Generosity in May

Your offerings to St. John were shared beyond our walls in May in the Following ways:

8% of our regular May offering ($2202.69) went to support the mission of the larger church.

2% of our total offering goes to support our community needs. In May ($701.51) was given to the Foster Grandparent Program in honor of Evelyn Schmidt, long time foster grandparent for St. John Christian Preschool.

Altar Flower & Radio Sign-up: If you would like to sign up to sponsor the Altar flowers &/or the radio broadcast contact Kathy in the office at 641-228-3397! We will continue to have flowers as they are on the online service & the radio broadcast reaches many of our at home congregation!

HAPPENINGS...

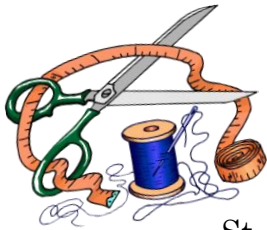

St. John Sesquicentennial 2022: It is time to start planning! We can plan for a lot of little things or one big thing, but whatever we do it will take some forethought.

We would like to have a meeting at 10:15 a.m. on July 18th in the Parish Hall. With something as important to our congregation as this there should be involvement from every board and people of varied talents throughout our church family. Youth, music, crafters even possibly sports ideas could be ideas to toss around. After covid we deserve something to look forward to. This sort of thing only happens with “many hands making light work”. Everyone has some kind of talent that can be shared.

Possible activities include.... We could have a historical Sunday A few of us worked on putting together scrapbooks and gathered historical documents before covid stopped us. We could celebrate old fashioned music at designated times throughout the year. How about an old-fashioned baseball game with people wearing jeans and chambray shirts or bib over-all's and/or women with long dresses. What kind of old games could we come up with for a picnic on the lawn. Start forming some ideas and please come to the meeting to get things rolling.

If you can't attend July 18th, please let Kathy know that you are interested.

Do Day Quilters

St. John has a group called “Do Day Quilters”. They make tied quilts to donate to the local homeless shelters. They will begin meeting on the 3rd Wednesday of the month (July 21) from 9:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. (bring a sack lunch). All are welcome to come! You don't need to be an experienced quilter to help out! If you are interested in joining the quilters, call Kathy in the office at 641-228-3397 for more information!

Vacation Bible School is coming July 26 - 29th!

St. John Christian Preschool...

Things are a lot quieter around St. John Christian Preschool during the summer months, but we are still keeping busy! We are excited to be gearing up for the new school year with some cleaning projects around the preschool and the assembly of our family packets. We are definitely enjoying the slower pace of the summer and extra time with my family, but we are also eagerly anticipating the start of the new St. John Christian Preschool school year!

Families will need to pick up their information packets July 21-23. These packets are full of information for the upcoming school year! Our parent information meetings will be in August, so look for that information to come later. These meetings are a great opportunity for question-and-answer sessions and for our families to get to know the other families that will be in their child's class. Open houses will also be in August, and we look forward to seeing all the littles with their families!

Carleen and I would also like to take a moment to thank the preschool board members who work so very hard to keep our program running smoothly: Leslie Trettin, Brittany King, Lezlie Weber, Lydia Klinkel, Jessica Hoeft, and Payton Johnston. It is with their dedication and hard work that our preschool program continues to thrive! THANK YOU!

Thank you for the many blessings that you bestow upon our preschool program. Without your prayers and support we would not be able to do what we do. We love sharing God's love with our friends and we thank you for helping us share that important message!

In closing, we do still have some openings in our program. Our morning classes are open to any child who will be at least 3 on or before September 15, 2021. Our afternoon classes are open to any child who will be at least 4 on or before September 15, 2021. Please call the preschool (228-7274) if you would like more information.

With HIS Love,

Whittney Franke
